With Father Doug, Celebrating Fifty Years

Being a Priest for Fifty Years brings back many Memories and Blessings: memories of experiences with family and friends growing up in Alexandria Bay, of eight years in the seminary, with priest colleagues, religious sisters and deacons in the diocese and in Belgium, of seminarians supported, of parishioners in Brownville, Dexter, Saranac Lake, Sackets Harbor, Henderson Harbor and back in Alexandria Bay. The blessings are countless. The memories are lasting. Let us give thanks!

Father's Day

Today (Sunday) we celebrate Father's Day, honoring & celebrating fatherhood, paternal bonds and the influence of fathers in society.

The nation's first Father's Day was celebrated on June 19, 1910, in the state of Washington. However, it was not until 1972...58 years after President Woodrow Wilson made Mother's Day official...that the day honoring fathers became a nationwide holiday in the United States.

To honor our fathers today, we share this collection of Father's Day quotes:

- "A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society." -- Billy Graham, Christian Evangelist and Author
- Blessed indeed is the man who hears many gentle voices call him father!" -- Lydia M. Child, U.S. Author
- "We are given children to test us and make us more spiritual." -- George Will, U.S. Journalist
- It is easier for a father to have children than for children to have a real father." -- Pope St. John XXIII
- "How true Daddy's words were when he said: 'All children must look after their own upbringing.' Parents can only give good advice or put them on the right paths, but the final forming of a person's character lies in their own hands." -- Anne Frank, German Jew and Holocaust Victim
- "A father is neither an anchor to hold us back, nor a sail to take us there, but a guiding light whose love shows us the way." Unknown
- "The Lord is like a father to his children, tender and compassionate to those who fear him." -- Psalm 103:13 (NLT)
- "The father of godly children has cause for joy. What a pleasure to have children who are wise." -- Proverbs 23:24 (NLT)
- I cannot think of any need in childhood as strong as the need for a father's protection— Sigmund Freud, Austrian neurologist & psychologist
