The Ascension of the Lord

In the Gospel of Luke, the author indicates that the Ascension was a significant moment in the disciples' personal transformation and the advancement of the Gospel through the Church. He emphasized this importance by ending his Gospel with the Ascension and beginning his second volume, Acts of the Apostles, with the event.

The Ascension had a very profound impact on the disciples. Before the Ascension, the disciples were disturbed when Jesus told them He would soon leave them; they thought they were losing Him. But Jesus reassured them, telling them that He was going to be with them in a different way...through His Spirit.

The Ascension of Jesus produced joy because the disciples realized what amazing benefits would come to them when Jesus returned to the Father. All the promises regarding the Spirit's ministry to the disciples were about to be fulfilled.

When Jesus ascended...

- "...and sat down at the Father's right hand, the Father verified the accomplishment of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus and confirmed that the final payment for sin had been made (Heb. 10:11-14).
- ...the intercessory work of Jesus on behalf of His people began. In this ministry, we are assured that we will always have access to the Father forever (1 John 2:1).
- ...His eternal reign over all enemies began. As Peter wrote, "Now that He has gone into heaven, He is at God's right hand with angels, authorities, and powers subject to Him" (1 Pet. 3:22).
- ...the church was empowered to accomplish its mission. In Ephesians 1:22-23, writing about Jesus' resurrection and ascension, Paul said, "[God the Father] put everything under His feet and appointed Him as head over everything for the church, which is His body, the fullness of the One who fills all things in every way."

The disciples were filled with joy, hope and a great sense of mission in response to the Resurrection and Ascension. They were transformed and mobilized to follow Jesus forever.

And, we can go forward with the same hope and joy because Christ promises that He will always be with us. [Excerpted from The Gospel Project for Adults-God's Story Part 2 by Keith Whitfield]
