October 2017

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Every October, the celebration of World Mission Sunday leads us to the heart of our Christian faith – mission. In this year’s Message for World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis explains that “the Church’s mission, directed to all men and women...is based on the transformative power of the Gospel.” We urgently need the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Holy Father reminds us of “countless testimonies to how the Gospel helps to overcome narrowness, conflict, racism, tribalism, and to promote everywhere, and among all, reconciliation, fraternity, and sharing.” This annual appeal is the Church’s global effort to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, the Gospel of Jesus is proclaimed. The poor receive practical help and experience God’s love and mercy, His hope and peace.

I ask you to open your hearts as we reach out this World Mission Sunday to every corner of the globe with Christ’s message of hope and peace. In carrying out our mission, we draw inspiration from Mary, Mother of Evangelization, who welcomed the Word of life in the depths of her humble faith. With the Holy Father, we pray, “May the Virgin Mother help us to say our own YES, conscious of the urgent need to make the Good News of Jesus resound in our time. May she intercede for us so that we can acquire the holy audacity needed to discover new ways to bring the gift of salvation to every man and woman.”

Grateful always for your generosity of spirit and heart, and confident of your missionary commitment to share the joy of the Gospel and the hope it brings, I pray for God’s blessings upon you and your families.

Faithfully yours in the Lord,
